

The image shows a multiplication equation $6 \times 1 = 6$ written on a light blue grid background. The numbers and symbols are large and colorful: the first '6' is blue, the 'x' is green, the '1' is purple, the '=' is red, and the second '6' is blue. All characters have a thick black outline. A vertical red line is positioned to the right of the equation.