

The image shows a multiplication problem where the numbers are represented by kiwi slices. The number 6 is formed by six kiwi slices arranged in a vertical column. The number 3 is formed by three kiwi slices arranged in a horizontal row. The number 18 is formed by eighteen kiwi slices arranged in a 3x6 grid. The equation is $6 \times 3 = 18$.